Sewn Rib Bind Off

This bind off is also known as the Invisible Ribbed Bind Off or Grafted Bind Off. You can find it from many sources—here is my step-by-step photo tutorial version.

Using ins-and-outs that will be easily understood by those familiar with Kitchener Stitch, this bind off makes a beautiful, stretchy finish for the top of any 1x1 ribbed edging. Cut yarn at about 4 to 5 times the circumference or length of the edge you will be finishing and thread onto a yarn needle.
